FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BLM HOSTS COAL BED METHANE FORUM

MILES CITY – The Bureau of Land Management Miles City Field Office in conjunction with the Montana Board of Oil and Gas Conservation and the Montana Department of Environmental Quality will present a forum on coal bed methane.

The event will be held on Saturday, August 28 at the Miles Community College, room 106 from 9 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. in Miles City. The event is free and open to the public.

Speakers representing the three agencies will present topics on the federal and state government permitting and regulation processes as they apply to coal-bed methane development.

The presenters will also be available to the public for questions immediately after the forum.

Questions may be referred to Mark Jacobsen at the BLM Miles City Field Office, phone (406) 233-2831.
